THIS WELL KNOWN BEAUTY SPOT WAS MADE FAMOUS BY R. D. BLACKMORE THROUGH HIS LEGENDARY NOVEL LORNA DOONE. EPC: E. THE PROPERTY IS IN NEED OF UPDATING AND MODERNISATION.

SITUATION

The property is located in the legendary Doone Valley on the Devon/Somerset border, at the end of its own driveway in a well known beauty spot on Exmoor. Brendon is approximately 4 miles, Lynton and Countisbury is approximately 7 miles whilst Porlock is a similar distance. This property is set in a stunning location with some of the best walking and riding country in the U.K on the doorstep.

DESCRIPTION

Cloud Farm has been utilised to take full advantage of the 3 footpaths, which converge in the yard adjacent to the farmhouse and buildings. There is a facility for serving drinks, cream teas and light snacks along with camping and caravanning equipment in a the Tea Room, there are 10 electric hook-up points beside the Badgworthy Water for camping and caravanning, there are further level areas by the river stretching right up into the Doone Valley with space for between 75 and 100 pitches. The Self Catering accommodation, is in need of improvement, there is owners accommodation and three separate letting units known as Ridd's Retreat, Carver and Lorna's Bower, all named after characters in the legendary novel by R. D. Blackmore, written in 1869 which made the whole area famous.

THE BUSINESS

Cloud Farm is perfectly situated at the confluence of three separate footpaths from the Doone Valley, Church or Malmesmead to take full advantage of the passing walking and riding trade in this famous beauty spot. There are facilities for serving drinks, cream teas and light snacks and camping supplies from the purpose built tea rooms. The owners accommodation is comfortable and spacious whilst there are three lets each having the potential to produce between £15,000 - £18,000 each per annum. The campsite is well known and well used throughout the whole year and produces a gross figure of over £100,000 in conjunction with the shop/tea room. There are stables and facilities for horse trekking which are not currently utilised, although in the past this has been a profitable revenue stream. The beauty of the camping is its peacefulness and back to nature feel, allowing campers to pitch by the river in beautiful surroundings with some of the best walking and riding country available in the South West literally on the doorstep, well away from busy traffic and built up areas. A visit to the property will confirm that this is a special and unique location with much commercial potential, some of which has already been expertly utilised.

BUSINESS TURNOVER

These figures will be available to bona fide purchaser(s) who have viewed the property and have provided funding information to the agents.
